DESCRIPTION

Les Palmiers is a bed and breakfast located in the peaceful village of Chamarel. It lays approximately 1 hour from the Sir Seewoosagur Ramgoolam airport and just about 1 hour from Port-Louis; the capital of the island. Les Palmiers is the perfect place for an ecotourist who wants to discover the depths of nature in Mauritius. When staying at this farm with its own restaurant, one can help the farmer, Mr. Prem, to harvest local fruits such as bananas or pineapples at his fields up in the mountains. You can also have the opportunity to go hunting with him in nearby forests.

If you like cooking, the lady of the house, Lalita, will be keen on teaching a typical Mauritian style of cooking. You will be nicely surprised by the dedication of this hostess as she handles everything herself; from the cooking to the serving of the food.

GROUND FLOOR

The ground floor serves nice lunch and dinner everyday to tourists passing by the village of Chamarel. The dining room is in the house and the tables are laid out on a terrace. The restaurant seats 35 and serves a variety of Mauritian curries, with rice or taraias.

FIRST FLOOR

The first floor consists of three bedrooms. Two of them include an air-conditioning system and they can accommodate at least 2 persons per room.

SECOND FLOOR

The second floor comprises of an apartment with two rooms, accommodated for 2 adults and 3 children. The apartment includes a nice kitchen and a bathroom. You will be fascinated by the view that offers the balcony as it overlooks the fields and the mountains.

FACILITIES

WEATHER CONDITION

Chamarel has its own weather, which means breezy throughout the year, so bring a sweater or jacket when visiting. Summer days may be hot, but evenings and early mornings are almost always nice and fresh. In winter it may rain everywhere on the island except for Chamarel on the other hand it can be raining at Chamarel when it is sunny everywhere else. And when it rains, the famous earth turns into mud and you could want to put your gumboots on.
